Romantic path directly on Lake Uri. Final ascent to the Urnerloch before Sisikon. Accessible with prams/buggies and wheelchairs only from the Tellsplatte boat station to the Tell Chapel.

The boat station is just a few steps away from the Tell Chapel. Back at the station you follow the very romantic path along the Lake Uri. Half way you will cross the old railway bridge of the Gotthard-train-line and then quickly reach the lake again.

Shortly before reaching Sisikon the path leads up to the very busy Axenstrasse through a small tunnel where you can see a painted "Uristier" (heraldic animal of Uri) on its northern side. Taking the stairs you will then reach the village of Sisikon.

Information on fireplaces and picnic sites you can find here.

Who we are

We are a foundation whose purpose it is to preserve historical rural edifices from all parts of Switzerland by taking them apart piece by piece and reassembling them on our grounds for everyone to visit and as a basis for scientific enquiry.

"Home-made" Shop

Excellent delicacies, prepared according to traditional recipes, are available at the Ballenberg Shop in the farmhouse from Ostermundigen. What is on offer varies according to season and includes jams, syrup, dried fruits, and bottled vegetables and fruits. And of course, bread, sausages and cheese.

Swiss Open-air Museum

The Ballenberg Open-Air Museum lies at the heart of Switzerland between the popular regions Haslital Meiringen-Hasliberg and Interlaken. The hilly and wooded museum grounds outside Brienz are surrounded by beautiful mountain scenery.

"Go the whole hog"

What would the Ballenberg Open-Air Museum be without its 250 farm animals? They are the stars behind the scenes that enthrall young and old alike. Most of the animals normally just lie around relaxing – just look, for instance, at the magnificent sow and her dozen piglets that simply love wallowing in the mud at the farm from Escholzmatt LU (741). However, our four-legged friends are indisputably one of the major attractions at Ballenberg. We are therefore focusing this year on farm animals with the slogan "Go the whole hog!". The experience of the everyday culture of rural life in the past as well as the 250 farm animals are a great source of enjoyment for every visitor.

After 27 years, the company Nelson Pub, Seewen, closed its doors on 17 August with sadness and joy. Over all these years among various managers, Nelson and his guests have experienced good and bad times. Good times: From 2003 to 2008, this company was successfully managed by Satish Deng, a native of India, who has lived in Switzerland for 33 years, graduate in hotel and business school as well as a graduate in computer science and home management. After a time out for family reasons until December 2012 he returned and took over the Nelson business as managing director with the aim, with new ideas and his experiences, to bring the Nelson back on success.

Since October 2013, the Nelson Pub is now called CLOVERS (= Kleeblatt, engl.). In the Irish tradition of the CLOVERS / Shamrock or the 3-leaf clover, the Holy Trinity stands: one leaf for the father, one for the son and one for the Holy Spirit. When a clover with a fourth leaf is found, it represents the grace of God. Another reading is: One leaf stands for FAITH, the second for HOPE, the third for LOVE, and the fourth for HAPPINESS!

CLOVERS offers numerous entertainment options. Relax with good music with a drink or with a fine menu. We wish you a pleasant stay and a nice time at CLOVERS.

Your CLOVERS Team :-)
